

BOOKMARK THIS

5 places you need to visit in Cobble Hill & Carroll Gardens, Brooklyn

from annie & madeline diamond of most lovely things

Madcap Cafe

387 Court Street

If you think that a patty melt can't change your life, well, you are wrong. Head to this charming Carroll Gardens restaurant for one of the best sandwiches in all of New York City.

Books Are Magic

225 Smith Street

Owned and operated by acclaimed author Emma Straub, Books are Magic is a beautiful independent bookstore that is the perfect place to find your next read. You won't want to miss a photo-op at the store's mural outside.

East One Coffee Roasters

384 Court Street

East One is an all-in-one coffee shop. There are designated laptop and laptop-free areas, plenty of seating for groups, and a full-service restaurant attached to the regular cafe. Stop by for a cup of coffee and enjoy the stylish atmosphere.

Brooklyn Farmacy

513 Henry Street

This Carroll Gardens eatery offers the perfect blend of kitsch and genuinely good comfort food. Stop in for a milkshake at the counter or stay awhile and enjoy a classic grilled cheese.

Cobble Hill Park

Clinton Street

Don't leave the neighborhood without taking a stroll through Cobble Hill Park. It may be small, but this park is charming whether you want to sit and enjoy the greenery or walk by the beautiful townhomes on the adjacent Verandah Place.