

BOOKMARK THIS

5 places you need to visit in Portland, Maine

from annie & madeline diamond of most lovely things

Tandem Coffee + Bakery

742 Congress Street

One word: Biscuits. Tandem Coffee + Bakery, located in a charming neighborhood just outside of downtown, has delicious coffee and incredible pastries that you can't miss if you visit Portland.

The Francis

747 Congress Street

Just across the street from Tandem is The Francis, a beautiful boutique hotel in a historic home that's been renovated to perfection. Roam the streets in this neighborhood to feel like a Portland local.

More & Co.

112 High Street

More & Co. may be moving to a new location soon, so stay on the lookout for their beautiful products. Their shop showcases local and international artists. You can't leave without picking up an "Imagine Maine" t-shirt or sweatshirt.

Portland Lobster Company

180 Commercial Street

Lobster Rolls are a necessary meal when you visit Maine. Portland Lobster Company is the perfect spot to have the quintessential Portland seafood experience. Grab a roll, a local Allagash beer, and enjoy your meal overlooking the water.

Scarborough State Beach

418 Black Point Road

Drive about 15 minutes outside the city and you'll come upon the beach in Scarborough State Park. The beautiful beach even has some small waves for surfing. And if water sports aren't your thing, you can always walk along the sand and take in the beautiful beachfront homes.